

In order to accomplish the above mentioned goals, the Regional Department of Defense Resources Management Studies will designate a staff member to act as the Point of Contact (POC) for the NATO School ADL Office and the NATO and PfP ADL community.

4. Additional Stipulations

This Technical Agreement does not imply any financial commitment on the part of either of the two parties.

The NATO School ADL Office is committed to sharing and supporting ADL course development in cooperation with Regional Department of Defense Resources Management Studies. The NATO School ADL Office does not accept responsibility for problems with third parties involved in ADL development.

All ADL courses are to be reusable and sharable with partners. After producing a course, the course belongs to the NATO / PfP ADL community. The Regional Department of Defense Resources Management Studies and NATO School remains the content owner but may not limit access to the courses to the Regional Department of Defense Resources Management Studies or NATO School.

The NATO School's Commandant has the final decision about the NATO School ADL Office support on course development. The National Defense University „CAROL I” Commandant has the final decision about the Regional Department of Defense Resources Management Studies involvement on course development.

This Technical Agreement may be terminated (in writing) by either of the two parties at any time with six month notice.
